

Is a surgical career for me?

Thursday 22 March 2012, 6.00 pm – 9.00 pm
Venue: Royal Society of Medicine, London

Book your place at this event to hear surgeons of different specialties talking about their branches and dispense common myths. This is an ideal opportunity for participants to gain an understanding of career pathways into surgery, various surgical specialities and life as a surgeon.

Sessions include:

- A day in the life of a surgeon
- Why choose a surgical career?
- The necessary attributes of a surgeon
- Making a start - electives, FY posts, exams, publications and research
- Surgical career pathway and choosing a surgical branch
- Women in surgery and flexible training

Early bird prices*

RSM member: £10 - £20

Non RSM member: £20 - £30

*Prices will increase on Thursday 23 February 2012

Book online:

www.rsm.ac.uk/trainees

email: trainees@rsm.ac.uk

Tel: 020 7290 3846